Michael Sarbanes and Elizabeth Smith – Will Clean Up Baltimore’s Parks and Playgrounds to Help Improve Our Quality of Life.

Baltimore families deserve safe clean parks for our children to play, live and grow.

The Maryland League of Conservation Voters and Baltimore City League of Environmental Voters know that Michael Sarbanes and Elizabeth Smith are dedicated to preserving our environment to help enhance our quality of life.

MICHAEL SARBANES
City Council President

A champion for environmental protection, Michael led the charge to expand alternative transportation solutions for our city and has been deeply involved in the efforts to end lead paint poisoning.

As Council President, Michael will continue his work to improve our quality of life by boosting Baltimore’s “Green Economy” – making our homes energy efficient while increasing job opportunities in our city.

ELIZABETH SMITH
Council District 6

A mother of three, Elizabeth knows the importance of clean drinking water in our schools and safe parks and playgrounds for Baltimore’s children.

As Councilwoman, Elizabeth will bring together a decade of legislative, public policy and community service to help keep our streets and neighborhoods clean.
