SAFE Drinking Water in Our Schools.

PROTECTED Parks and Playgrounds.

On September 11th

Support Candidates Who Will Make Baltimore a Safer Place to Live and Grow.

With high levels of lead in some school drinking fountains and with unsafe parks and playgrounds, the children of Baltimore City deserve better. The Maryland League of Conservation Voters and Baltimore City League of Environmental Voters have endorsed these candidates because of their commitment to protecting and preserving our environment to make Baltimore a better place to live and grow.

MICHAEL SARBANES
City Council President

ELIZABETH SMITH
Council District 6

A champion for environmental protection, Michael led the charge to expand transportation solutions for our city and has been deeply involved in the efforts to end lead paint poisoning.

As Council President, Michael pledges to grow Baltimore's "Green Economy" – making our homes energy efficient while boosting job opportunities in our city.

A mother of three, Elizabeth knows the importance of safe parks and playgrounds and clean drinking water in our children's schools.

As your Councilwoman, Elizabeth will bring together a decade of legislative, public policy, and community service to help keep our streets and neighborhoods clean.
